

ROUTES to ROOTS FILMFESTIVAL

Routes to Roots Film Festival 2018 is proud to announce . . .

A screening of Kayak to Klemtu written and directed by Zoe Hopkins

Ella embarks on a 500 km kayak journey to testify against oil shipments being made through territorial waters. Surrounded by members of her disjointed family, and against the stunning backdrop of BC's inside passage, she perseveres through many challenges and obstacles.

Grade 7 and 8 classes are invited to attend Friday, September 21st, from 11:00 am – 1:00 pm. Admission is free. Snacks must be ordered ahead of time (Popcorn - $3.00, Drink - $3.00). R2RFF merchandise will also be available (hats - $10.00, R2RFF logo T-shirts $10.00, 2018 R2RFF commemorative T-shirt - $25)

To book your spot and pre-order snacks, please contact Jim Carroll at 519-428-5200 ext. 243. Space is limited and will be given on a first come, first served basis. Merchandise cannot be pre-ordered.

A Q & A will be held with Heiltsuk/Mohawk Canadian filmmaker Zoe Leigh Hopkins. She will give a behind-the-scenes look at making the movie.
